Internship at NHAI

NHAI Internship Scheme is being offered to provide learning opportunities to young talent in the field of Geographic Information System (GIS), through a mutually beneficial Inter Industry-Academia Association. This Scheme seeks to engage students pursuing/completed Graduate / Post Graduate Degrees enrolled in recognized University/Institution within India, as "interns". These 'interns" shall be given exposure to GIS functions in NHAI and would be expected to contribute towards development of a GIS repository including data for National Highways, Way-side Amenities, Ropeways, Toll Plazas etc. For the "Interns" the exposure to the functioning of NHAI may be an add-on in furthering their future interests.
